An ancestral, 2000-year-old Aleppo artisan masterpiece, this deliciously scented, pure, plant-based soap with olive-pomace and bay laurel oils is cauldron-cooked using the batch method.

Traditionally used as wedding favours, each soap radiates its own perfume: a smooth rose fragrance, a soothing neroli aroma, a captivating jasmine scent and an indulgent note of argan.

Packed with essential fatty acids, antioxidants, unsaponifiables and vitamins, it's the ultimate Levantine Mediterranean hammam soap, perfect for the everyday care of normal and irritable skin.

Respects the balance of all skin – normal, sensitive and delicate – on the face and body. Every day, at any age, for gentle and effective cleansing.
